HAPPY HOUR

Old People are easy to spot at sporting events; during the playing of the National Anthem Old People remove their caps and stand attention and sing without embarrassment They know the words and believe in them.

Old People remember World War 11, Pearl Harbour, Normandy and Hitler.

If you bump into an Old Person on the footpath he will apologise. If you pass an Old Person on the street, he will tip his cap to a lady. Old People hold the door for the next person and always, when walking, make certain the lady is on the inside for protection.

Old People get embarrassed if someone curses in front of women and children and they don't like any filth or dirty language on TV or in movies.

Old People have moral courage and personal integrity. They seldom brag unless it's about their children or grandchildren.

It's Old People who remove their hats while eating in a restaurant in respect for the ladies and guests. It's the Old People who know our great country is protected, not by politicians but by the young men and woman in the military serving their country.

This country needs Old People with their work ethic, sense of responsibility pride in their country and decent values.

We need them now more than ever.

Thank god for Old People.

Dear Residents,
Thank you to all the Residents who came on Open Day to chat to our guests. This was a busy day with the Café dinner that evening. Our numbers were down on the night but those who attended enjoyed the meal and the company of course. Our village is starting to look so much better now that the polycarbonate pergolas are just about complete and the tilers will be back to attend to the apartments, the 80's and the Lodge over the next 3 weeks. This will complete the works until about 8th January when the railings will be attended too. There was a hold up on these, due to so many on the Central Coast placing orders.

Don't forget there is still a little time to book for the Christmas lights coach trip to the Hunter Valley gardens display and dinner. Just let us know at the office and we will book for you.

The residents Christmas party will be held on Wed 18th December and we will send out your invitation toward the end of November.

The Resident AGM is also coming up, so don't forget to go along and support your Committee, both outgoing and the incoming new. Thankyou to the 2019 Committee for your dedicated work throughout the year, your work is appreciated and again I look forward to working with the new elected Committee.

Why more people are making the Central Coast Home

Central Coast Living where every day feels like a holiday...

It's easy to see why people come for a getaway and end up making the easy decision to call the Central Coast home.

There's always something to do, whether you are a fishing enthusiast or just want to while away an afternoon walking on one of the beautiful beaches, the Central Coast has it all.

Fancy a game of Golf? Head off to one of the many Golf Clubs and have a hit around the beautiful grounds, then enjoy a lunch in one of the restaurants within the Club.

If you're a man looking for a place to keep busy why not join a local Men's Shed where the community can come together for mate ship, to share and learn new skills and contribute to their community. With local weekend markets it's a shopper's delight... Gorgeous bush walks, local theatre and all the comforts of city life without the city traffic.

Tempted yet?

See you on the Central Coast...
